Capital Group appoints Asia-Pacific Managing Director to its Global Financial Institutions team

Sydney, 12 November 2024: Capital Group, one of the world's largest active asset managers with over US$2.8 trillion* in assets under management, has appointed Marketa Dvorak as Managing Director, Global Financial Institutions (GFI) in Asia Pacific. Based in Singapore, Marketa will report to Nick Shaw, Head of Client Group, Global Financial Institutions, who oversees GFI operations in both Asia and Europe from London.

Marketa will deepen and expand Capital Group's relationships with major financial institutions based across Asia Pacific. Her responsibilities will include working with local client groups to cultivate partnerships with global and regional distributors, ensure Capital Group's initiatives are aligned with each partner's strategic objectives and support clients in the region with value-added services beyond investing.

Marketa brings over 20 years of experience in asset management and investment banking. She began her career at JPMorgan in London before joining Wellington Management, where she spent eight years in their London office. Marketa relocated to Singapore in 2015 to build out Wellington's Wealth business in Asia Pacific. Most recently, she was the firm's Head of Southeast Asia, Global Wealth Management Group, responsible for strategic partnerships with Global Financial Intermediaries and leading regional banks.

Nick Shaw, Head of Client Group, Global Financial Institutions, Asia and Europe, Capital Group, said, "We hear from global financial institutions that they want fewer partners and expect more from their asset manager. We're committed to supporting our partners across the region to meet their needs and their clients' financial goals. Asia Pacific is a key growth market for Capital Group where we have been serving investors for more than 40 years. Marketa's deep knowledge of the region combined with her proven ability to foster meaningful relationships will be instrumental as we continue to build upon the successful partnerships we have established. We are delighted to welcome her to the team."

Marketa Dvorak, Managing Director, Global Financial Institutions, Asia Pacific, Capital Group, commented, "I am excited to join Capital Group in this role, dedicated to growing and establishing strategic relationships with global financial institutions in the Asia Pacific region. I look forward to collaborating with our team around the world to further build upon the momentum with GFI partners both globally and locally, and support more investors in the region."
