AMP Limited appoints Andrea Slattery as Non-Executive Director

AMP Limited today announces Andrea Slattery will join the Board as a Non-Executive Director, effective 15 February 2019, subject to usual pre-appointment processes.

Ms Slattery brings substantial experience from 14 years as a Managing Director and CEO in financial services as well as serving on high-profile board and advisory committees for listed companies and in the commercial, government and not-for-profit sectors for the past 11 years. She has 26 years' experience in financial services, superannuation and retirement including establishing and leading the SMSF Association, which is the independent, professional body representing Australia's self-managed super fund sector.

Ms Slattery is currently a Non-Executive Director at Clean Energy Finance Corporation, Argo Global Listed Infrastructure and the South Australia Cricket Association.

AMP Chairman David Murray said:

“Andrea’s considerable experience in financial services as a business leader, non-executive director and an expert in change brings a strong mix of skills to the AMP board.”

“Andrea has built trusted relations with government, industry and consumers, and been a strong advocate for the self-managed superannuation industry, and financial services in general. Andrea’s insights into financial advice, wealth management and superannuation will be very valuable to AMP as we continue to simplify and reset our business.”
